WINNIPEG, Dec. 3.

The original stockholders of the Northwest Central have commenced suit against President Beatty, M. P., to force him to give back a majority of the stock held by him in trust for some time, and which he refuses to surrender.

The divorce suit of Lady Colin Campbell against her husband is the sensation of the day. Damaging evidence against the lady herself is leaking out. The Duke of Argyll and Marquis of Lorne, father and brother of the defendant, are witnesses.

Shortly after the miners entered the shaft of the Cony Ingham Colliery, Wilkesbarre, Pa., this morning an explosion of gas took place. Between 20 and 30 miners were burned and seriously injured, but none killed. The men were removed as fast as possible from the pit and thence to their homes, and it is believed all but none will recover. It was a most pitiful sight at the head of the shaft when the injured men were brought up. Some were so badly burned as to be unrecognizable, the skin peeling off their hands and faces. Their agonizing cries were most heartrending. The explosion was caused by allowing a lot of gas to accumulate at the bottom of the shaft contrary to the rules, and when the men entered with their lamps an explosion immediately followed.

The British Parliament will meet on January 12th.

John Dillon has been summoned to appear and show cause why criminal information should not be sworn against him for sentiments expressed in a speech encouraging tenants to follow the example of those of the Clan Richard estate in the county of Galway. Dillon, in this speech advised general submission to eviction rather than pay rent as the best means for bringing owners of lands in Ireland to time. The speech was delivered at Woodward, October 18th. Later reports from Ireland show serious complications and trouble cannot be prevented.

The Ottawa Government have completed arrangements by which almost the entire equipment for the Northwest Mounted Police force will be obtained in the Dominion.

The extensive contracts given Canadian manufacturers some time ago have been satisfactorily filled and a new issue of uniforms is being made.

George Haslett and A. Callen, of Buffalo, went through the rapids and whirlpool this afternoon in the same barrel used by Haslett last summer. They were in the rapids and whirlpool five minutes and were taken out of the eddy on the Canadian side, just below the whirlpool. They were quite exhausted, but are now in a better condition.

Boston has been made the winter port of the C. P. R.

Nicholas Flood (Irish) secured the nomination for Western Assiniboia for the Commons at Moosejaw last Monday.

Two elevators were burned at Duluth last Sunday, 800,000 bushels of wheat being burned, with a loss of a million dollars and two lives.

Ottawa returns to the Marine Department show that the storms which swept all the lakes on the 17th and 18th ult. were terribly disastrous. Thirty-seven lives were lost and thirty-three vessels worth $625,000 were wrecked.

Nine youths have been sentenced to death for committing an outrage on a 15 year old servant girl at Sydney, N. S.

Martin French, cattle king, had an interview with the officials of the Department of the Interior lately. He proposed to remove his stock from the U. S. and bring $400,000 head of cattle into Canada next spring if satisfactory arrangements are made with the Government.

The nominations in Manitoba took place yesterday. Wilson retired from North Winnipeg leaving the field to Conklin and Dewey. Lariviere was elected by acclamation for St. Boniface.

Hon. Lawrence Clarke and Col. Sprat left for Battleford on Thursday.

Mrs. Swanson and child, Mrs. Calder and Miss Platt arrived per mail on Tuesday last.

R. G. Congdon, plasterer, who has been working on the courthouse all summer, left for his home at Saskatoon this week.

Acting Mayor Betts visited St. Ann's Convent yesterday, and was much pleased to notice the rapid advancement the pupils have made in their studies since last year.

Chas. Woodman's house, at the east end, took fire on Tuesday last, but the timely assistance of the neighbors prevented serious results, part of the roof only being burned.

The P. A. C. Band serenaded Mr. Swanson on Wednesday evening last, on the occasion of the arrival home of Mrs. Swanson. Mr. S. has promised the band a handsome present.

A Liberal Association has been formed in Prince Albert, of which John Stewart is President, Wm. Miller 1st Vice President, Dr. Porter 2nd Vice President, H. W. Newlands Treasurer, and Arthur L. Sifton Secretary.

Rev. Pere Andre has been unanimously elected by the clergy of the diocese of St. Albert as delegate to the General Chapter of the Oblats of Mary, which takes place in Rome next Spring. He left St. Albert for France on the 10th of last month, and will arrive there about the end of this month, and spend the holidays with his father, whom he has not seen for a quarter of a century. His Lordship Bishop Grandin is about to start from Prince Albert for the United States with Father LaCombe, where he will spend a couple of months and from whence he will proceed to France and Rome.

On Tuesday evening last a genuine surprise party visited the house of Miss Baker, in this town, to wish her bon voyage as her departure to visit friends in Oregon and California. The evening was pleasantly spent in singing, conversation and partaking of refreshments kindly provided by the ladies. Miss Baker was quite bewitched when Mrs. Laura Frichard and Miss Annie McTaggart stood up before her and read an address on behalf of her many friends, expressive of their regret at her departure from Prince Albert, and wishing her a pleasant visit and a safe return, and presented her with a purse containing over forty-five dollars. Miss Baker replied briefly but feelingly. Speeches were made by Rev. Mr. Campbell and Dr. Jardine, followed by a hearty goodbye.

The following resolutions were passed at a large and representative meeting of residents of the parishes around Battleford, held under the presidency of Mr. Pierre Parantreau, on Nov. 11th, in Battleford, with the object of taking into consideration certain letters signed by Philip Giamont, secretary of the late Louis Riel, and published in certain papers in Lower Canada. Resolved—"That the contents of the said letters do not meet the views of the said residents. That if such statements are now circulated through the public press the aforesaid residents refuse to hold themselves responsible for their contents. That the Metis, under the present circumstances and in view of the fact that they do not belong to any party, desire to abstain from all party action, and that the said residents take this occasion to tender their most sincere thanks to all those who, without distinction of party, have sympathized with them in their misadventures."

THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

Mr. Turfiff's motion in the Northwest Council, on the 12th inst. "That the manufacture or sale of spirituous liquors or beer should not be allowed in the Northwest Territories until a majority of the people have declared in favor of it by popular vote; that the Northwest Territories Act be amended so as to prevent the C. P. R. selling liquor and beer on their cars in the territories; and that permits be issued only for medicinal and chemical purposes," provoked quite a debate, and demonstrated the fact that even in the Northwest the liquor question bids fair to become a vital issue in the near future. Mr. Turfiff is no doubt, a sympathizer with prohibition and as a friend of the movement has a perfect right to express his opinion, and most people believe that were prohibition possible and in keeping with the free-subjection of the mind to the desire of the creator—the distinguishing mark between the true Christian and the hypocrite—it would be a great blessing were such a system put in force. But besides being opposed to the divine plan of redemption the possibility of enforcing prohibition has always been an open question. In fact the whole of prohibiting men from drinking by the imposition of a prohibitory law seems to us about as easy of accomplishment as it would be to make men abstain from stealing or lying by the same process. We do not say this with any desire to make people believe that we take any delight in the inherent wickedness of the children of Adam, or that we have any sympathy with those who cater to the passions, not the actual necessities, of the public. No, we regret to have to admit that men are more or less apt to go astray, and we are prepared to admit that by wise laws a good deal of evil doing may be averted, but we take issue with those who believe that it is possible to make men total abstainers by act of parliament, or any other process than that by which men are led to become believers in the Christian doctrine—by moral suasion. Prohibition, in our opinion, never did make a people sober, and never will, while, on the contrary, it robs a good man of a right which he exercises with prudence, to save the bad man, and only succeeds in making the former feel that he has been made a slave, while it encourages the latter, in most cases, to break the law by resorting to smuggling in bad liquor or drinking the vilest of decoctions for the sake of the alcohol they may contain. There is, of course, a necessity on the part of us all to give a good example to the young, but we take it that the free will submission of one man's intelligence to all that is wise and good will have a more salutary influence on the rising generation than the robbing of a dozen of the privilege of enjoying a glass of wine or beer.

We, like Mr. Turfiff and the other members of the Council, do not believe in the permit system, firstly, because it places the Governor in a false position by leaving him open to the charge of favoritism, lowers the dignity of his position, stimulates smuggling, and encourages more drinking to excess than would be indulged in were a different system in force in the Territories.

What system, then, should be adopted in lieu of the permit system? This is a question it takes a bold man to answer at the present time, the opposition to the liquor traffic being so strong, and the advocates of prohibition being so prone to say harsh things of those who, though they may be honest in their convictions and thoroughly practical in their ideas, have no faith in prohibition. They look upon them as settlers in a disputed and as enemies of the moral wellbeing of the community, though they may be, and in many cases are, thorough temperance. For our part we believe in a license system for the Northwest, first, because such a system would be in keeping with our ideas as a free people; secondly, because prohibition is opposed to freedom, and has been proved impossible in this country; and thirdly, because under a license system we will be able to secure a portion of the money which is now spent in the liquor traffic for municipal purposes. We, of course, do not believe in licenses being given to everybody, and would make the penalties for a breach of the law sufficiently severe to prevent a reckless disregard of it.

The motion proposed by Mr. Turfiff was strongly opposed by the majority of the Council, among them being Judge Rouleau and Mr. Cayley, the latter moving an amendment in favor of local option which was carried by thirteen to three. This vote shows pretty clearly that the sense of the country is opposed to prohibition, not alone because it has proved a failure so far, but also because it strikes at the liberty of the subject.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

SIR RICHARD has at last found a safe retreat in South Oxford. The days when Gilt knights went forth to victory would seem to have passed, when they are forced to retire within such strongholds as South Oxford. No Tory need apply there.

Whether a ratepayer shall be allowed a vote in municipal elections who has not paid his taxes, has been left by the amended Municipalities Ordinance to the municipal councils to decide. It certainly seems a hardship to deny a man a vote because he has not paid his taxes, because the powers of the tax collector are a guarantee that the taxes will be forthcoming. It would have been a wise move also to have left municipal councils the privilege of deciding whether a man who had not paid his taxes could be elected a councillor. It would prevent much of the illegal legislation now carried on.

THE HON. David Laird, ex Lieutenant Governor of the Northwest, has consented to contest Saskatchewan in the Liberal interests at the approaching Dominion elections. Mr. Laird is an able man, but what claim he has on this constituency we are unable to see. He does not live here; he has no interests here. Besides, does it not look like a farce to ask for representation in the House of Commons and then select an outsider, other than a Minister, to represent us, and would it not be equivalent to saying that we have not in our midst a man qualified in every way to represent us. We think very much of the protest against this unwarranted inference which the selection of Mr. Laird by the Liberals of Saskatchewan carries with it. The honor of representing us should be conferred upon some one of our citizens who has borne his share of the hardships and responsibilities of developing the country, and if the people are true to themselves they will not fail to select a resident of the district. We have no need to go to P. K. Island for a man to represent us, and our Liberal friends will find it out.

ONE of the funniest things we have noticed of late in connection with the Liberal party is their claiming the recent elections to the Legislative Council of Prince Edward Island as a great Liberal victory. The issue in the contest was the abolition of the second chamber, the government favoring its abolition and the Liberals urging its retention. What about the abolition of the Senate now? If it is right for the P. E. Islanders to have a second chamber why advocate the abolition of the Senate? Another curious feature connected with the rejoicings of the Liberal party over the result of these elections is the fact that the franchise of the upper house in the Island is a restricted one, based on property qualification, only persons holding real estate to the value of $300 being entitled to vote. That for the Assembly is manhood suffrage. A short time ago the elections for the latter took place and resulted in the return of nineteen Conservatives to eleven Liberals, showing that when the people at large, in whose wisdom the Liberals claim to have the greatest faith, have the privilege of recording their votes Conservative principles prevail.

Mr. Bennett, Government emigration agent, and Thos. Doddridge, coasthouse contractor, left for the east on last mail.

North West Council.

REGINA, Nov. 18.
Mr. Purley presented a petition from the Reeve and council of Qu'Appelle, asking the Council to ratify a by-law granting a bonus of $25,000 to the Wood Mountain and Qu'Appelle Ry. The petition was received.

Mr. Reed presented the report from the special committee on the Prince Albert volunteers. The report was adopted and Mr. Hughes asked that it be transmitted at once to the proper authorities at Ottawa.

The Governor laid on the table the report of the finance committee. It recommended that the petition of H. Dundas Strong be not granted; of John A. Mitchell and others for $200 for a road from Edmonton to Victoria be not granted; of John C. Slater for $150 towards a bridge at Red Deer creek district be not granted; that Saskatoon and Carrot River agricultural societies be granted $100 towards their 1886 expenditures; that they found the Board of Education accounts correct and satisfactory; that marriage license issuers be ordered to report quarterly, and that a permanent auditor be appointed; that $100 be granted to York Colony agricultural society, and $100 to Wm. Girt for auditing the accounts; that $500 be allowed each member for agricultural purposes, less the amounts already appropriated. The report was adopted.

The committee on prairie fires reported a total loss of $31,193 during past season.

Messrs. Ross, Turfiff and Secord were appointed to confer with the Dominion Government in reference to the establishment of a provincial form of government.

The House then went into committee on the memorials to the Dominion Government. After some discussion the committee rose and reported and the report was adopted.

Following is a list of the Ordinances passed at the last session of the Northwest Council:

An ordinance respecting the administration of justice.

An ordinance respecting the incorporation of joint stock companies by letters patent.

An ordinance respecting juries.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If you send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children Teething, its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, there; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children Teething is pleasant to take and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.
